

The following enhancements will be visible to a buyer user upon release.

DHL – Actual Rates shippers will no longer appear as an option during the checkout process.

DHL's press release can be found at <http://www.dhl-usa.com/restructuring/index.asp>.

Enhancement to the search functionality for users with more than 50 addresses assigned.

1. When a buyer user clicks on the binoculars icon they will now see a single search box which will search through all fields.

The screenshot shows a user interface for selecting a shipping address. At the top, there is a label "Select a Shipping Address:" followed by a question mark icon. Below this is a search box with a binoculars icon on the right. To the left of the search box is a "Back To Cart" link. Below the search box is a "Create a New Shipping" section with a legend "* = required field". The first field is "Address Name:" with a red asterisk. To the right of the search box, a callout box is open, showing a search input field with the word "Search" inside, a "[+] Advanced Search" link, and "Search" and "Cancel" buttons.

2. If the user prefers to search on a specific field, he may click on Advanced Search to open up a list of fields that may be searched on.

This screenshot shows the same shipping address selection interface as the previous one, but with the "Advanced Search" dropdown menu open. The dropdown menu is titled "[-] Advanced Search" and contains a list of searchable fields: "Address Name", "First Name", "Last Name", "Company Name", "Street Line 1", "Street Line 2", "City", "ST", "Zip", and "Country". At the bottom of the dropdown menu are "Search" and "Cancel" buttons. The "Create a New Shipping" section on the left is more visible, showing fields for "First Name:", "Last Name:", "Company Name:", "Address Line 1:" (with a red asterisk), "Address Line 2:", "City:" (with a red asterisk), and "State/Region:" (with a red asterisk).

The Four51 Logon Page has been updated so the design better matches the public website.

The Zip/Postal code field is required for Canadian Addresses.

The screenshot shows a form titled "Create a New Shipping Address:". Below the title is a legend: "* = required field". The form fields are: "Address Name:" (required, with a help icon), "First Name:", "Last Name:", "Company Name:", "Address Line 1:" (required), "Address Line 2:", "City:" (required), "State/Region/Province:", "Zip/Postal Code:" (required), "Country:" (required, dropdown menu with "Canada" selected), and "Phone:". At the bottom left is a checkbox labeled "Save to Billing Address Book". At the bottom right is a "Save" button.
